

LITHIC STUDIES SOCIETY

Lithic Studies Society 2024 Conference Call For Papers

Friday 11th & Saturday 12th October 2024
National Civil War Centre, Newark-on-Trent, Nottinghamshire, UK

The Lithic Studies Society will host a conference this year at the National Civil War Centre in Newark on the 11-12th of October.

Abstracts are welcome from independent or affiliated researchers at all career stages and on any topic related to lithic studies, including but not restricted to:

- Studies of new sites and assemblages
- Re-analysis/new perspectives on old sites and assemblages
- New methods/approaches to the study of lithic assemblages
- Retrospective views of developments in lithic studies
- New perspectives on lithic technology
- Experimental approaches to lithic studies
- Public archaeology and outreach in lithic studies

Abstract guidelines:

Please provide an abstract of no more than 250 words. Please include author name(s) and abstract title exactly as you would like it to appear in the conference programme. Authors are also requested to provide three to five key words (indicating time period and geographic area if appropriate).

The extended deadline for abstracts is: 28th July 2024.

Email abstracts to conference@lithics.org. Please state whether your abstract is for a poster or paper presentation.

Registration will open in August 2024.

We look forward to welcoming you to Newark in October!
