

Youth Advisory Group Development

ONBOARDING & DEVELOPMENT OF THE TRAINING BRIEF [JANUARY - FEBRUARY 2023]

CBA and PP meet to delve into the project brief, craft personas of CBA staff and young people CBA want to engage with, map the project specification to Lundy's model of Youth Participation. After this, the timeline for impact monitoring is to be agreed and the training brief is to be co-produced.

WELCOME

INFORMATION TRAINING FOR STAKEHOLDERS [MARCH - APRIL 2023]

Training in #YouthVoice for CBA staff, trustees and other stakeholders, focusing on theory of participation, creating a safe space and ensuring delegate buy-in! Beginning to alter perspectives in Archeology and Heritage - sector wide! With CBA leading the change.

FACILITATOR TRAINING [APRIL - MAY 2023]

Introducing and teaching CBA staff and partners working directly with the young people on how to facilitate a youth governance project. Practical teaching, support and coaching: including creative facilitation techniques and insight from our Young Consultants.

PARTICIPANT TRAINING [MAY - JUNE 2023]

Introduces the advisory group participants to the role of advisory group member: explaining how it works, expectations, co-producing a terms of reference for the group and defining the role of the youth advisory board member. Supporting young people to feel confident in their new role.

TOOLKIT CREATION JUNE - JULY 2023]

Learning and resources from the training are brought into a bespoke toolkit for future recruitment, developing a process to safely recruit members to the Board. This will be directly influenced by learning from our Young Consultants and our experience as #YouthVoice experts.

YOUTH GOVERNANCE LEAD [MARCH - ONWARDS]

The CBA have been successful in securing funding for a new 2-year role, leading their Youth Governance work. This means timelines for training may be slightly affected to account for getting the new staff member into post before the facilitator training.
