

Postgraduate Symposium 2023

22nd of June 2023

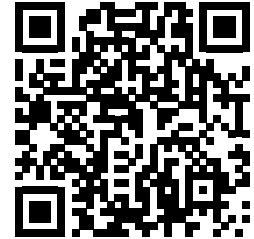

Department of Archaeology, University of York

PGR and PGT research presentations

Attend in-person or follow along on YouTube

Scan me for Live Stream!

Schedule of the Day

09.00 – 10.15

Experimental Demonstrations

YEAR Centre,
Campus West

09.00

Gwendoline Pepper

Silk Reeling Demonstration

09.20

Jim Glazzard

Viking-age non-ferrous metal working

09.40

Tabea Koch

Experimental birch tar production

10.00

 Questions

10.15 – 11.00

Travel to King's Manor

11.00 – 12.00

Taught Postgraduate Presentations

G/60,
King's Manor

12.00 – 13.00

Lunch break

13.00 – 14.25

PGR Presentations: Session 1

Chair: Kim Chandler

K/159,
King's Manor

13.00

Katharine Macy

Autism in the Palaeolithic

13.10

Ki Crabtree

Human craniofacial gracilization and its relationship to masticatory loading

13.20

Chloe Parr

Aggregation in the Palaeolithic: art within its landscape and the social significance of major art locations

13.30

 Questions followed by a 15 minute break

13.50

Lucy Handford

Functional performance in the human masticatory system during ontogeny

14.00

Javier Montalvo-Cabrera

Changes and continuities in the use of pottery throughout the Ceramic Period (1600 - 400 BP) of the Araucanía, Southern Chile

14.10

Elizabeth Hicks

Ceramic Use, Cuisine, and the Creation of Community along the Swahili Coast in the 1st Millennium AD

14.20

 Questions followed by a 15 minute break

14.40 – 16.35

PGR Presentations: Session 2

Chair: Elizabeth Hicks

K/159,
King's Manor

14.40

Melissa Kays

Ancient Roman Benefactresses and Their Social Mobility

14.50

Oya Inanli

Metagenomic perspectives on traditional beer brewing: New insights from Scandinavian yeast rings

15.00

Yannick Signer

Location, location, location: Medieval pottery production in the Yorkshire landscape

15.10

 Questions

15.20  YUSU a-cake-demic coffee break

16.00 Mackenzie Masters
Dietary insights into catastrophic events, comparing mass graves from epidemic and conflict events

16.10 Kate Morris
The Victorian Memoir (and what it can tell us about death and meaning-making)

16.20 Peter Randall
Living, Working and Dying Like a Navvy

16.30  Questions followed by a 10 minute break

16.45 – 18.10 PGR Presentations: Session 3
Chair: Lucy Moore

K/159,
King's Manor

16.45 Sree Subramanian
Infrastructures of Colonial Circulation

16.55 Drury Graham
Sustainable Arcadias: Estate Landscapes as Models for Environmental Sustainability and Outdoor Recreation in Contemporary Britain

17.05 Emma Bryning
Curating a More Inclusive Past: Using Graffiti Research to Reveal New Stories within Country Houses

17.15  Questions followed by a 15 minute break

17.35 Melissa Thomas
Community and identity: The heritage of the fishing industry in Britain

17.45 Wenna Potter
Nuclear Heritage: A Modern Industrial Landscape

17.55 Anoj Khanal
Understanding water heritage for solving modern water scarcity issues

18.05  Questions

18.15 End of Symposium